

DISCOVERY DAY REDISCOVER YOUR CEMETERY!

Saturday July 9, 2011

10:00 - 2:00

Get to know Vancouver's only cemetery and celebrate 125 years of service. Join us for a day of walking tours (and even a bicycle tour!) that will explore the history, people, and events that have shaped Mountain View Cemetery.

Learn about our first burials (and what really happened to Simon Hirschberg) see historic photos, and discover where the old streams were.

Why not bring a picnic? You can enjoy 106 acres of green space in the heart of the city along with spectacular views of the city and mountains.

Walking Tours!

- 10:15 - John Atkin
Civic Historian
- 10:45 - Lorraine Irving
BC Genealogical Society
- 11:15 - Maurice Guibord
social and cultural research
- 11:45 - Chris Mathieson
Executive Director of the Vancouver Police Museum
- 12:15 - Bike Tour! See all of the cemetery's 106 acres.

Discover the fascinating history of some of Vancouver's notable citizens on a free one hour walking tour.

Tours start at 10:15 am

Find out about what happened to Simon Hirschberg
1:30 pm

If you have ancestors buried at Mountain View, we can show you how to find their grave.

Visit our beautiful Celebration Hall.
See the display of historic photos, ledgers and one of the cemetery's original headstones.

5445 Fraser Street
Enter off 39th and Fraser mountain.view@vancouver.ca
vancouver.ca/cemetery

MOUNTAIN VIEW CEMETERY
Where Vancouver Remembers

