

Vancouver's New Neighbourhoods

Achievements in Planning and Urban Design

WAITE AIR PHOTO

The downtown peninsula is being transformed and reinvigorated by the new high-density residential neighbourhoods of Coal Harbour, False Creek North, and Downtown South (refer to inset).

Acknowledgements:

Every effort has been made to identify those in both the private and public sector who have played significant roles in the initial planning, design and implementation of the new neighbourhoods cited. Any omissions are sincerely regretted.
