CABARETS NOT LICENSED TO SERVE ALCOHOL (NON-ALCOHOLIC DANCE HALLS)

Adopted by City Council November 26, 1998

Amended October 31, 2000

1. Hours are limited to 7:00 a.m. to 2:00 a.m. Monday to Thursday but they may operate continuously from Friday 7:00 a.m. to Monday at 2:00 a.m. on weekends as set out in the License By-law.
2. Hours may be extended for recognized public holidays by the Chief License Inspector as permitted in the License By-law.
3. Capacity is to be limited to 200 patrons at any one time.
4. Admittance will be limited to those of 19 years or older.
5. Notification of residents and businesses within a 1,000 ft. (305 m) radius.
6. Only time-limited development permits will be granted with a condition that no alcohol sales or consumption shall be permitted in the premises.
7. Exotic dancing will not be permitted.
8. A good neighbour agreement, similar to those applying to cabarets, will be required.
9. A legal agreement satisfactory to the Chief Constable and applicant, which guarantees police access to the premises, will be required.
10. Applications must follow the pre-site clearance requirements applying to Cabarets and Class II - Restaurants.
11. Locations for new applications for late night non-alcohol dance halls will be limited to the Granville Street Entertainment District (700, 800 and 900 blocks).
