SCORE A GOAL FOR TRANSPORTATION!

Please join Metro Vancouver Mayors and Provincial Election Candidates from all parties for a STREET HOCKEY GAME on May 2nd to celebrate the roll-out of new transit, road, cycling and walking improvements underway as part of the 10-Year Vision for Metro Vancouver Transit and Transportation.

We'll be joined by special guest and former Vancouver Canuck, Kirk McLean.

- WHEN: Tuesday, May 2, 2017
- WHERE: 800-block Robson Street (South side of the Vancouver Art Gallery above Robson Square)
- CHECK-IN: 11:15am (Please proceed to the white pop-up tent when you arrive)
- GAME PLAY: 11:30am-12:30pm

Stop by and play for one shift, or stay for the whole game. We'll provide the sticks, nets and a referee!

Hosted by the Mayors' Council as part of the #CureCongestion campaign, this casual event will recognize the important teamwork between our regional and provincial governments that is leading to new infrastructure projects designed to get our region MOVING! We want to continue that successful partnership after the election. As a community leader, we hope you'll join us to show your support.
