Subject: Today's Staff/Council Briefing

Good Morning Mayor and Council-

Around the world there have been dramatic acts of violence in cities that seem to be escalating in number and scale. What would we do in such an incident? How would VPD respond? What would your role be in such an incident. These, among others, are the questions that VPD will answer at today's briefing. CMT has gone through this exercise with Chief Palmer and his team. We found it very informative, so thought that you would benefit from it as well. I encourage you to join-in the meeting today at 2 if you are able.

Best
Sadhu
