Camps provide an action-packed week of fun activities including games, sports, crafts and out-trips. Note: Out-trips are not scheduled for preschool camps which will visit the playground and explore the park and pond outside the Centre. Scheduled out-trips for the older camps will be posted on the website and are subject to change.

To ensure a safe and enjoyable camp experience:

- Parent consent and Emergency Medical Forms must be completed and returned before the 1st day of camp. Forms available online or at the Centre.
- Children should bring a healthy lunch, snack and drink each day.
- Children should wear/bring appropriate clothing for the activities and weather.
- Explorers 6-10 yrs travel on public transit.
- Do not send any valuables (registration fee includes transportation & admission)
- Leaders are not responsible for lost items
- Leaders are not responsible for participants outside the daycamp hours unless they are registered in "Extended Care"
