

The Vancouver Police Department received a request for “estimates for overtime paid to VPD officers between Feb 1 2010 and Feb 28 2010”. In reply, the Department provided the following information:

To answer the specific question asked in the FOI request, as of June 8, 2010, a total of approximately $5.9 million in overtime was paid to VPD officers between February 1, 2010 and February 28, 2010.

In addition, it may be of interest to note that as of June 8, 2010, the total overtime earned by VPD officers in 2009-2010 related to the Olympic Games was $7.8 million, of which essentially all ($7.8 million) is recoverable from external agencies.
