Dear Mayor and Council,

I am writing to let you know that the Vancouver Plan process is launching an intense period of public engagement with a series of free online events, surveys and workshops that address housing, the future of neighbourhoods, re-imagining our streets, supporting the local economy, re-establishing a blue-green network, reconciliation and equity. All of these opportunities for public input are available through shapeyourcity.ca. This engagement and further work through the summer will lead to a crucial engagement forum in the fall of 2021.

We will be issuing a news release tomorrow morning to outline these engagement opportunities.

Thank you,
Paul
