Subject: Upcoming IB: Day of Action Against Racism

Dear Mayor and Council,

I am writing to inform you that the City will be issuing an information bulletin tomorrow, May 28, for Day of Action Against Racism, which falls on May 29.

The City is inviting individuals, businesses, community organizations, and associations to take a public stand against racism and to continue to do so every single day, and has put together a list of actions that you can use and share to foster anti-racist communities.

Anti-Asian racism and other forms of racism including anti-Indigenous and anti-Black racism are deeply rooted in the history of Vancouver and our country. Everyone who lives, works, and socializes in Vancouver has a role to play in addressing racism.

Please join us in sending a clear and united message that there is no place for hate and racism in Vancouver by downloading, using, and sharing our set of translated resources, including posters and social media graphics, which reiterate that there is no place for racial discrimination in Vancouver.
