Hi Mayor and Council

In answer to your question, I am forwarding information on the status of the garden:

- A Parks Board application initiated on July 22, 2018 remains under review for a new community garden within John Hendry Park
- The license agreement between the City and CCCG Society has been extended for the 2019/2020 growing season at the existing 2009 Stainsbury Avenue community garden site.
- The Agency will continue to provide support to the CCCG Society via its elected management to seek out alternative spaces that could be further reviewed as potential relocation sites reporting relevant findings and recommendations to City Council.

Thanks
Sadhu
