Good Afternoon Mayor and Council

Here's today's update from the Province:

- Provincial State of Emergency extended for two more weeks
- New ministerial order that protects amateur sport organizations, their employees and volunteers from liability, provided they are complying with public health orders and provincial sport guidelines
- The Province and the provincial health officer have approved a proposal for Vancouver to be a hub city for the NHL
 - o involves a "modification" to the quarantine plan that would allow a team to be a family entity or a bubble
- Provincial plan approved for Film and TV production to resume in BC
