Greetings Mayor and Council,

Please find below and attached an invitation to Carnegie's virtual National Indigenous Peoples Day event happening this Sunday June 21.

*****

The Carnegie Community is very excited to launch our very first virtual – National Indigenous Peoples Day event!

Join us virtually for an ancestral land acknowledgement with Elder Carleen Thomas of the Tsleil-Waututh Nation, live stream performances - including Carnegie's own lexwst'í:lem Drum Group, a virtual tour of the Bill Reid Gallery of Northwest Coast Art, a virtual smudge & storytelling with Carnegie Elder in Residence Les Nelson along with Museum of Anthropology Indigenous artist talks – plus much more!

*In Person - Free lunch will be served from the Carnegie Community Centre Patio starting at 12:00pm while supplies last!

Please feel free to join us online from 12:00 pm or drop by in person for a lovely meal of smoked salmon with potato & corn salad accompanied by baked bannock.

Here is the virtual link for the event –
