Subject: Upcoming IB: Jericho Lands Guiding Principles

Dear Mayor and Council,

The draft guiding principles for the Jericho Lands, which will provide direction for the future redevelopment of the site, are now available online for public review and input through an online survey. The guiding principles will help set the tone and direction as the planning process moves toward creating a policy statement and site plan to transform the Jericho Lands into a new community. All materials and information are available at: shapeyourcity.ca/jericho-lands. The Information Bulletin will be distributed today.

Best,
Sadhu
