Subject: Upcoming IB: City makes more streets for people with changes to Robson Street

Dear Mayor and Council,

The City of Vancouver will begin changes to Robson Street this week as part of a pilot project to extend sidewalks in busy areas to support the accelerated reopening of local businesses and communities as part of its ongoing COVID recovery efforts. This week, we continue to seek public input on the pop-up plazas and have approved more temporary patio permits. The Information Bulletin will be distributed today.

Best,
Sadhu
