Subject: FW: CoV civic buildings receive a 2020 Government Leadership Award: CaGBC honours Canada's green building leaders at Building Lasting Change 2020

Hello Mayor and Council

We have received a Canadian Green Building Council (CaGBC) Government Leadership Award for our work on city owned buildings.

I thought you'd be interested to know about this area of leadership within our organization.

Best

Sadhu

Government Leadership

Winner: City of Vancouver Civic Buildings

Vancouver's Real Estate and Facilities Management (REFM) department has adopted aggressive green building strategies, build leading-edge green buildings. These strategies include LEED® Gold Certification since 2004, a zero emission new build Standard and, in 2019, adopting a strategy to measure and reduce embodied carbon in new construction projects.

CaGBC honours Canada's green building leaders at Building Lasting Change 2020

CaGBC is pleased to announce the winners of the 2020 Leadership and Green Building Excellence Awards [send.cagbc.org], which recognize individuals and organizations that demonstrate outstanding industry leadership and have made significant contributions to CaGBC's mission to advance green building in Canada.

"It is a privilege to congratulate the outstanding achievements of this year's Leadership and Green Building Excellence Award winners,” said Thomas Mueller, President and CEO of CaGBC. “While 2020 has brought much uncertainty, these award winners demonstrate that our industry remains focused on the important work before us. Addressing the need for sustained climate action, resilient buildings and communities, and human health and wellbeing will be critical in the decade ahead.”

Winners will be recognized throughout Building Lasting Change 2020 [send.cagbc.org], taking place online on five consecutive Tuesdays from September 22 to October 20. Leadership award winners will also be profiled weekly beginning in early September, while Green Building Excellence winning projects will be explored in a series of Lunch and Learn sessions starting late October.
