Subject: Response to question from Council re Child care across the street from 1101 Seymour St.

Dear Mayor and Council,

In response to Council's question from this morning as to whether a child care is being planned across the street from 1101 Seymour Street:

- There are no existing City owned childcares in the immediate vicinity, but there are some City-owned centres operated by the Vancouver Society of Childcare Centres within a few blocks of 1101 Seymour.
- Staff are not aware of active projects under development in the immediate area for City owned, CAC or capital delivered child care spaces.
- It is possible that a private child care or pre-school may be pursuing a space near 1101 Seymour, however, unless applying for a Development Permit, staff would not be made aware of privately run centres, nor would there be any relationship with City staff in relation to its operations.

Best,
Sadhu
