Mayor Gregor Robertson is pleased to invite you to

RENEWABLE CITY SERIES: REPORT BACK FROM COP21

On December 12, 2015, a monumental climate agreement was made in Paris at COP21 by over 185 international governments. The "Paris Agreement" aims to limit global temperature rise to less than 2° C.

Leaders from Vancouver brought our Greenest City Action Plan and Renewable City Strategy to Paris, leading action and commitment worldwide. Mayor Robertson of the City of Vancouver joins other local leaders to report back on their experiences at COP21 and translate what the Paris Agreement means for Vancouver now and into the future.

Join us at this event, part of a larger series on Vancouver's shift to 100% renewable energy:

March 15, 2016 12 pm – 2 pm
Telus Garden, 510 West Georgia Street, 24th Floor
Vancouver, British Columbia

Light snacks and refreshments will be provided.
RSVP at renewablecity.eventbrite.com by March 13 at 5 pm
Free event. Space is limited.
