Subject: Weather

Greetings Mayor and Council

It was a relatively quite day regarding flooding calls considering the steady rainfall today.

Weathernet is forecasting 10-15mm of rainfall until 8 or 9 pm tonight with 2-5mm thereafter until tomorrow morning.

Wind is 30-60kph with gusts between 70-80kph until 8pm then decreasing to 20-30kph with no gusts after 9 pm.

Crews are currently responding to surface flooding calls with their afternoon and graveyard shifts.

Let me know if you see anything of concern.

Best

Sadhu
