Subject: Weekend storm response

Good afternoon all,

I would like to acknowledge and thank staff from across the City who made themselves available and jumped in to help with storm response over the weekend. While, fortunately, the weather we were expecting did not materialize in Vancouver, we were well-positioned to act quickly, coordinate our efforts and meet the expectations of our citizens. Whether you were at your normal place of work, in the field or at the EOC, your contributions were much appreciated. Our readiness is not possible without your involvement.

I appreciate that the effort to prepare for and respond to these events have an impact on many members of our team, their families and their lives away from work.

Again, on behalf of the City Manager's Office and all of CMT, thank you for ensuring our City was ready to respond to the worst of Typhoon Songda.

Paul
