Subject: Warming Centres Open again this evening

Greetings Mayor and Council

We are going to open the warming shelters again this evening at the three city locations.

We are working with BC Housing for additional winter shelters, which we feel are needed given the extreme winter we've been having and the large numbers of people that remain unsheltered. BC Housing has agreed and we're working out where we can land them. I'll keep you posted as this evolves.

Best

Sadhu
