Re: Request for Access to Records under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act")

I am writing in response to your request of May 9, 2016 under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, (the Act), for:

Expense records of City of Vancouver Councillors attending the Legal Education and Action Fund (LEAF) breakfast on March 11, 2016 at the Fairmont Hotel in Vancouver, specifically:

- Whether the costs of that breakfast (and associated items such as parking) where claimed on their expense claims;
- If so, how much was claimed and for what items.

The records responsive to this request will be publicly posted on the City's website within 60 days. Therefore, we are applying section 20(1)(b) of the Act:

20 (1) The head of a public body may refuse to disclose to an applicant information

(b) that, within 60 days after the applicant's request is received, is to be published or released to the public;

The event is called "29th Annual Equality Breakfast." If the Councillors charged the event to their expense account then it will show up on the publicly posted expense reporting for Quarter 1 (2016).

Under section 52 of the Act you may ask the Information & Privacy Commissioner to review any matter related to the City's response to your request. The Act allows you 30 business days from the date you receive this notice to request a review by writing to:
