Subject: Invitation to Opening of Saa-ust Centre on March 19

Greetings Mayor & Council,

In anticipation of community hearings being hosted by the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls in April, the City is opening a temporary space offering support to families and survivors. Services and supports at Saa-ust Centre include: counselling services, ceremony space, access to Elders and Knowledge Keepers, and art/cultural activities from Nations across Canada. The centre opens on March 19 and will remain open through late-April.

You are invited to attend both the media event and tour at 10:30am, and the opening ceremony at 12 noon.
