Subject: Draft Capital Plan

Dear Mayor and Council,

I am writing to advise you that we will be issuing an Information Bulletin on Wednesday to point the public to the Capital Plan materials that will be posted with the Council Agenda.

This is part of our ongoing education and engagement campaign to help increase civic literacy, especially with respect to the City's long-term planning and budgeting exercises.

We've also updated the "City of Vancouver in 90 Seconds" video (in four languages), and will be using social media to promote an updated web page and the videos. More detail about the Capital Plan will also be added to the web site closer to the June 5 Council meeting.

A second round of public engagement will take place throughout June to solicit feedback on the draft Capital Plan and will include online and telephone surveys, focus groups and face-to-face opportunities at multiple locations across the city. More details on engagement opportunities will be published in the coming weeks.

Best,
Sadhu
