Subject: Protesters on the Ironworkers Memorial Bridge

Greetings Mayor and Council

You have likely heard that anti-pipeline activists are protesting on the Ironworkers Memorial Bridge. There are seven people that have repelled off of the bridge and about five people on a lower walkway below the bridge deck supporting them. They are hanging low enough that they are currently preventing oil tankers from making their way under the bridge. At this point, VPD is working with RCMP to deal with the situation. They are in the process of determining jurisdiction and roles for each police organization as this may likely go for several days.

I will keep you posted as the situation progresses.

Best

Sadhu
