Subject: New Indigenous Relations Manager

Dear Mayor and Council,

I am pleased to announce that the City has appointed Katelyn Crabtree as the new Indigenous Relations Manager.

Katelyn is a member of the Nlaka'pamux Nation, and has a keen interest in advancing the rights and interests of Indigenous Peoples. Katelyn most recently served as an Associate at JFK Law, specializing in Indigenous law, and worked with the Missing Women Commission of Inquiry while obtaining her law degree.

Katelyn brings valuable knowledge and experience to this role, and I am confident that she will continue to work to strengthen local First Nations and Urban Indigenous relations, and embed reconciliation into the City's processes, policies and decision-making.

I would like to acknowledge and thank Chief Bill Williams for representing the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh Nations and participating in the interview panel.

Katelyn will be stepping into her role on Monday, September 17, 2018. She can be reached at Katelyn.Crabtree@vancouver.ca. Please join me in giving her a warm welcome.

Best,
Sadhu
