NAME	Davis Cup The World Cup of Tennis – Quarterfinal
LOCATION	Vancouver
DATES	April 6 – 8, 2018

EVENT DESCRIPTION
BACKGROUND	Davis Cup began in 1900 as a competition between USA and Great Britain. It's now the world's largest annual international team competition in sport, with 132 nations entered in 2018. Davis Cup is structured with a 16-nation World Group, contested over four weekends during the year. The remaining countries are then divided into three regional Zones depending on their location. Because Davis Cup is contested between countries rather than individuals, it gives players the unique chance to compete in a team environment with their countrymen. It also means lively, cheering crowds are highly encouraged! Unlike regular tennis tournaments, Davis Cup is known for its partisan and exciting atmosphere as fans cheer loudly and proudly for their own country. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Canada has competed in the World Group for six straight years – the nation's best-ever run of Davis Cup competition! In that stretch, Canada has made the semifinals in 2013 and quarter-finals in 2015 • Andy Murray (Great Britain, 2015), Novak Djokovic (Serbia, 2010), Rafael Nadal (Spain, 2004, 2008, 2009, 2011), and Roger Federer (Switzerland, 2014) have all won the Davis Cup trophy • USA has won the most the Davis Cup titles with 32, followed by Australia (28) and Great Britain (10) Canada Canada will be competing in the First Round of the Davis Cup on February 2- 4, 2018 against Croatia. If Canada is victorious, they will move on the Quarterfinal Round versus the winner of Kazakhstan and Switzerland. Rising singles star Denis Shapovalov headlines the Canadian lineup for the team's upcoming Davis Cup World Group first-round tie against Croatia. Quarterfinal Following a positive result versus Croatia, Tennis Canada would need to mobilize quickly with confirmations for a Host City in Canada for the Quarterfinal Match (April 6-8, 2018). Tennis Canada has made us aware that there are discussions with other potential Canadian Host Cities at this stage. Potential Opponent: Kazakhstan <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Currently ranked #13 in the World, Kazakhstan stunned the 2016 Champions Argentina in a playoff in Sept 2017. Potential Opponent: Switzerland

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Currently ranked #8 in the World, Switzerland has advanced in the First Round following victories over Belarus and the USA. Led by international superstar, Roger Federer, Switzerland has spent 27 years competing in the World Group.
OBJECTIVE(S)	Leverage relationships and capitalize on event hosting: Tennis Canada has hosted the Davis Cup in Vancouver in the past (Feb 2012, Feb 2013 and April 2013), but has not seen international tennis here since 2013. s.13(1), s.17(1), and s.21(1) Vancouver is furthering the dialogue around how we can increase participation in tennis year-round. Discussions have begun around the development of an indoor-tennis facility in the city, and the hosting of International Tennis events will leverage further partnerships to support building the sport in the city.
PERFORMANCE MEASURES	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Anticipated Room Nights – 1,200 for teams, fans, media and Tennis Canada delegation (administration and VIPs) Long-term hosting relationship development with Tennis Canada

Hi everyone,

s.13(1), s.17(1), and s.21(1)

There is no immediate action on this agenda item, but more of a reference as we prepare for the SHV Governance meetings that are set for the end of April and early May.

Closer to the date we will request feedback and critical questions so we can prepare a brief for the moderator that will host those sessions.

Thanks,
Michelle
