Subject: Upcoming IB: City opens warming centres as temperatures drop

---

Greetings Mayor and Council,

The City of Vancouver is working with Vancouver Park Board, Vancouver Public Library, Britannia Community Centre and Lookout Housing & Health Society to open warming centres on Monday December 3rd and Tuesday December 4th with possible extensions, should the temperature remain below activation threshold. Warming centres are activated as a life-saving response for people sleeping outside during the city's coldest months.

The City will release an Information Bulletin today.

Best,
Sadhu
