SUBJECT: Invitation to a presentation on "Planning Lessons from the cities of Portland and Seattle"

I would like to invite you to an upcoming presentation in Council Chambers this Friday, December 7th, entitled "Planning Lessons from the cities of Portland and Seattle". The presentation will be an overview of current planning initiatives in both Portland and Seattle. The presenters include Sallie Edmunds, the Portland Central City Planning Manager, and David Driskell, the Deputy Director of Planning in Seattle.

The presentation is being organized as part of a learning exchange between the three major cities in the Cascadia region, which Vancouver are participating in. We are very excited to learn what the main planning efforts and policy initiatives in these cities are and hope you can make the presentation along with Planning staff.
