Subject: Upcoming News Release - Short Term Rentals

Greetings Mayor and Council,

A News Release will be sent out today highlighting updated short-term rental market and enforcement numbers, in line with the memo to Mayor and Council you received two weeks ago.

Three months after the short-term rental regulations took full effect on September 1, efforts by the City to remove illegal units from the short-term rental market are seeing steady progress with over almost 1,000 units no longer on the market and over 3,100 business licenses issued.

Best,
Sadhu
