Subject: Key Messages

Attachments: 18 03 11 Key Messages_Host City Document.docx

As per our call today, please find attached the key message document updated that provides general information and background on the United Bid as well as Canada specific commentary.

The media conference tomorrow is scheduled for 9amET at BMO Field and will feature the Minister of Sport and Persons with a Disabilities, Kirsty Duncan, Peter Montopoli and Councillor Mark Grimes from the City of Toronto. The Government of Canada will be issuing a media release and Canada Soccer will amplify but not issue its own release.

No one host city will be mentioned in isolation but as a collective. Our comments will certainly reference the legacy of the National Soccer Stadium given that is where the conference is being held and the fact that it hosted 2007 and 2014 FIFA events. We will also reference that the inclusion of our four Candidate Host Cities from Canada will be done on Thursday, March 15.

Please let me know if you have any questions. s.22(1) if you have any questions and I would ask that you share this document internally as appropriate.

Regards,
Sandra

FACT SHEET
Canada Soccer/United Bid Committee
March 2018

Key Messages of the United 2026 Bid: Unity, Certainty, Opportunity.

- Our vision is simple: Together, we offer FIFA an unprecedented, united opportunity to stage the new 2026 FIFA World Cup™, with 48-teams and 80 matches, with a low risk operational certainty that is only exceeded by its opportunity to economically embellish and propel global football forward for years to come.
- There are three great nations in our bid: Canada, Mexico and the United States. Each of our nations has its own strengths and challenges – no country is perfect, nor should it pretend to be; but together we are stronger. Our unity sends a positive message to the world when it is needed most. That’s good for football everywhere.
- We are neighbors with shared borders, cultures and values and we’ve never been more united than for this bid.
- We firmly believe and trust that FIFA and the 211 Member Associations will judge us, and our competitor, on the quality of our bids, not on the politics of the moment.
- Our bid is historic because it’s three nations coming together for the first time ever - it’s an unprecedented display of unity and a huge opportunity for global football to lead the world at a time when displays of unity are needed most.
- Canada, Mexico and the United States have hosted a total of 13 FIFA events (Men’s, Women’s, and Youth World Cups and the Confederations Cup), which is more than any other trio of geographically connected nations – and set attendance records for five of those events.
- It has been 32 years and seven FIFA World Cups™ have occurred since the last one was held in the Concacaf region in 1994 when the United States hosted.

United 2026: Canada

- Canada is the only G7 country in the world to have not hosted a FIFA World Cup.
- Canadian fans are regularly within the top ten of all FIFA member associations to attend the FIFA World Cup™ and were number one of non-participating member associations in 2014.
- Canada is a welcoming country with the highest proportion of foreign-born population of all G7 countries (20.6%). All three bidding nations have had immigration as a building block and this is our chance to say thank you to the world.
- Over a quarter of a million newcomers from around the world are welcomed to Canada annually representing close to 200 countries.
- Opportunity extends beyond matches with an eight year build up to the competition and a legacy that will include alignment of the Men's National Team Program, creation of base camps, and infrastructure improvements.
- There are four Canadian Candidate Host Cities:
 - o Vancouver, BC
 - o Edmonton, AB
 - o Toronto, ON
 - o Montréal, QC
- Canada is ready to partner with our friends in Mexico and the United States and has a history of success in raising the bar for youth and women's FIFA tournaments:
 - o FIFA Women's World Cup Canada 2015™ (1.35M spectators/close to $500M economic impact)
 - o FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup Canada 2014
 - o FIFA U-20 Men's World Cup Canada 2007
 - o FIFA U-19 Women's World Championship Canada 2002 (47,000+ spectators at Final for largest attendance at a FIFA Youth Competition)
 - o FIFA World U-16 Championship Canada 1987
 - o Olympic Football Tournament Montréal 1976

Key facts: Matches & Format

- Teams: 48
- Matches: 80
- Host Country Split:
 - o US: 60 matches
 - o Mexico: 10 matches
 - o Canada: 10 matches

- Format:
 - o Group Stage: 16 groups of three teams will play each other—2 games for each team—top 2 teams from each group will proceed to knock out stage
 - o Round of 32: 16 matches to be played, winners proceed to next round
 - o Round of 16: 8 matches to be played, winners proceed to Quarterfinals
 - o Quarterfinals: 4 matches to be played, winners proceed to Semifinals
 - o Semifinals: 2 matches to be played – winner to the Finals
 - o Finals: 1 match, winner is the world champion
 - o Note: (The two finalists will play 7 matches each – same # of matches as winner in current format)

Bid Process

- Formal bid submission due on March 16, 2018.
- The FIFA Congress will vote to award the hosting rights in June 2018 at its annual FIFA Congress in Russia.
- From May 11 when the expedited process was approved until decision it will be only 13 months.

- June 12/13: FIFA Congress decision

Note: Ongoing since the bid documents were received in October 2017, all levels of government have been engaged. Over the past 3 months weekly meetings have taken place to ensure the most relevant and updated information was shared for the United 2026 Bid to move forward within the expedited timeline established by FIFA.

Host City and stadium process

- Initial outreach: 45 Cities (August 15, 2017)
- Shortlist: 32 Cities (October 4, 2017)
- Final List: 20-25 (March 15, 2018)

Government Support

- 8 guarantees
- Declarations
- Vision statements

Bid Book/Hosting Strategy

- FIFA has issued specific/detailed guidance on what we need to include in our bid submission, including: specifications for stadiums, base camps, accommodation, transportation, health and medical, safety and security ... 24 sections in all.
- We will deliver hundreds of pages of templates and supplementary reports detailing the readiness of our infrastructure.
- Executive Summary will be provided in FIFA's official languages of English, French, Spanish and German, as well as Arabic, Chinese and Russian.
- Technical visit by FIFA will happen in April, 2018.
- Final presentation to FIFA Congress in June, 2018.

The strength of the United Bid is CERTAINTY, with resources, expertise, and infrastructure of the three host nations demonstrating UNITY to provide the best OPPORTUNITY for the 2026 FIFA World Cup™.

- Facilities and Infrastructure
 - o Stadiums
 - o Hotels
 - o Training Fields
 - o Airports
 - o Transport Systems
 - o IT&T, Broadcast Facilities
- Staffing and Expertise

- All three MA's have extensive experience with FIFA Events and other major events
 - Volunteers: common practice with experienced resources
 - Professional staff ready to engage
- Service
 - Security – major event support at all levels of government
 - Transportation
 - Media Services
 - Immigration – event protocol and immigrations systems in place
 - Fan Services – best practices
 - Sustainability – social and environmental initiatives already in place to build an unparalleled legacy

Economic Impact

- Net economic impact is estimated at ~$5.3B
 - USA ~ $4.2B
 - CAN ~ $560M
 - MEX ~ $450M
- This translates into ~$3.6B in net benefit for hosts
 - USA ~ $3.0B
 - CAN ~ $350M
 - MEX ~ $220M
- Canada is expected to receive significant impact from non-traditional overnight visitors-driven by soccer interest- and will likely have lower security costs than the US or Mexico.

Canada Specific Q&A

Q: Why was Vancouver not included in the final bid book as one of the 23 candidate host cities?

Canada Soccer and United Bid Process

- Canada Soccer is very disappointed to not continue the legacy it created with the hosting of the FIFA Women's World Cup Canada 2015™ and the 2012 CONCACAF Olympic Qualifying Tournament in the city of Vancouver.
- In Canada, nine cities were approached in July 2017 by Canada Soccer with the relevant information on the United Bid for the 2026 FIFA World Cup™.
- Of the nine cities, seven expressed an interest to receive the Request for Information documentation which was submitted to the United Bid Committee on September 5, 2017. Of the original nine cities approached, Hamilton, ON and Winnipeg, MB did not continue in the process. In total, 44 cities in Canada, Mexico and the United States received the information to begin the process of being considered as a Candidate Host City in the Bid Book. Canadian cities at this stage included:
 - Calgary, AB
 - Edmonton, AB
 - Montréal, QC
 - Ottawa, ON
 - Regina, SK
 - Toronto, ON
 - Vancouver, BC
- Six of the seven Canadian cities completed the Request for Information with Calgary, AB exiting the process. At this stage, there were a total of 41 cities involved in the process across the three countries.
- From the reduced list of six Canadian cities, only four Canadian Candidate Host Cities continued in the process and were announced with a total of 32 Candidate Host Cities on October 4, 2017. The four Canadian cities were Edmonton, AB; Montréal, QC; Toronto, ON; and Vancouver, BC.
- FIFA provided the bid regulations in mid-October 2017 and these were subsequently shared with all Candidate Host Cities on October 27. A webinar was held on November 2 to review the documents in advance of the Host City Workshop held in Houston, November 13-17, with all four Canadian cities in attendance.
- Over the past three months, weekly meetings have taken place to ensure the most relevant and updated information was shared for the United 2026 Bid to move forward within the expected timeline established by FIFA.
- A FIFA Legal meeting was hosted by Canada Soccer on behalf of the United Bid Committee on February 15 with all four Candidate Host Cities participating.
- All necessary FIFA agreements were required to be completed in advance of the bid book submission to FIFA by March 16, 2018.

- In total, 23 Candidate Host Cities have signed the necessary FIFA agreements and met the United Bid Committee deadlines with three Canadian cities included in the final Bid Book (Edmonton, Toronto and Montréal).
- FIFA will make the final selections of Host Cities in June 2020.

Vancouver Process

- The City of Vancouver and Province of British Columbia did not provide the necessary signed FIFA agreements within the required timelines for inclusion within the Bid Book and as such will not be moving forward as a Candidate Host City.

s.21(1)

- In Vancouver, City Council unanimously voted in favour of Vancouver being a Candidate Host City on January 30, 2018.
- As part of the submission to FIFA, a host city stadium agreement is required to be signed. The proposed venue of BC Place is owned by the Province of British Columbia and as such required their signature.
- In 2015, the industry output for the Province of British Columbia through the hosting of the FIFA Women's World Cup Canada 2015™ was $118.8M with $82.9M in the City of Vancouver with nine matches held at BC Place.
 - 99% of Vancouver hotel rooms were full during the competition.
- The legacy of the tournament also included two new FIFA 2-Star training sites at Empire Field.

Q: Can Vancouver still be considered as a Candidate Host City once the United Bid Book is submitted without them included?

- The United 2026 Bid Book has been submitted with three Canadian Candidate Host Cities and those three will continue in the process. Vancouver is no longer part of that process.

Q: How will this removal impact the future of the sport in Canada?

- Canada Soccer thanks all of the Canadian cities that have shown an interest in playing a role in the United Bid for the 2026 FIFA World Cup™.
- We are grateful to the Government of Canada for their support of the competition and look forward to working with them and all levels of government to ensure that the United Bid is successful in securing the right to host the competition.
- We are pleased that three Canadian cities have made it past the goal line and are officially Candidate Host Cities as part of the 23 cities in Canada, Mexico and the United States that are part of the United Bid.

Q: What could have been done to prevent this from happening?

- The expedited process required all Candidate Host Cities to meet the same timelines and provide the necessary documentation.

- Of the 32 Candidate Host Cities announced in October 2017, 23 were able to meet the deadlines and provide the FIFA agreements to be included with the Bid Book including three other Canadian cities.

City of Vancouver Statement:

The City is extremely disappointed that Vancouver's bid to be a FIFA 2026 World Cup Host City is currently not being considered as we believe hosting the biggest sporting event on earth would have offered significant economic benefits. Vancouver remains a city with an exceptional sports hosting history and we look forward to working with the Province and our Sport Hosting Vancouver team to identify future international sporting events that bring positive economic and cultural impact to Vancouver.

Province of British Columbia Statement:

Lisa Beare, BC's Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture, made a statement regarding the possibility of Vancouver's involvement as a potential host city on Wednesday:

"The prospect of hosting the FIFA World Cup is exciting for soccer fans, and has the potential to bring significant economic and cultural benefits to British Columbia. For the past several weeks, our government has been working diligently with the United Bid Committee – consisting of Canada, the United States and Mexico – to bring the 2026 Cup to Vancouver, as one of the committee's Canadian host cities.

"While we support the prospect of hosting the World Cup, we cannot agree to terms that would put British Columbians at risk of shouldering potentially huge and unpredictable costs.

"Throughout this process, we have been in regular contact with the bid committee and other levels of government to support this bid, while protecting taxpayers. Through these conversations and our submissions to the bid committee, we have made numerous attempts to clarify the risks and obligations faced by British Columbians.

"So far, the bid committee has rejected our requests to clarify how much British Columbians could be expected to contribute. And they have declined to negotiate with the province regarding the concerns we raised.

"Should the bid committee reconsider, our door remains open to bringing some of the 2026 World Cup games to Vancouver."

Good Morning Michelle,

I noticed that the P-Forms that you have provided in the last couple days have been prepared by, and signed off by you.

Would it be possible if you can have a clerk or someone else to prepare the P-Form and you can sign off on them? This is not a new procedure, although the P-Form process is being more stringently enforced.

Would you be able to resubmit the P-Forms for me:

Canadian Transplant Association – P-Form amount: 11,250.00

Once I receive it I will process it for you ASAP.

If you have any questions, please email, or call me.

Thank you,

To the Vancouver – Host City Bid Advisory Group,

Over the past 8 months we have been working united with our Candidate Host City Bid partners from across Canada with the overall goal and objective to successfully get Canada across the goal line of being a part of the 2026 United Bid submission.

We successfully submitted all the necessary bid documents that contributed to the narrative and vision for hosting a World Cup in our city. In addition, as part of our submission we were required to submit 4 legal agreements that required support from all 3 levels of government. The expedited process challenged the review of these documents for all parties to agree to terms that they were comfortable with in moving forward. The Government of Canada provided their support in principle to the hosting of the FIFA World Cup in Canada, but was not able to confirm the specifics related to security and the potential cost sharing model for expenses occurred with essential federal services at this stage.

Unfortunately, that meant we were not able meet the requirement of signing our Vancouver bid agreements unmodified to be included in the 2026 United Bid book before the deadline.

As a City we are still encouraged to continue our dialogue with the United Bid Committee and Canada Soccer to be considered a training site should the 2026 United Bid be successful.

Thanks to everyone for your support and guidance through this process, it will not be lost. I'm encouraged with the learnings of this experience, and look forward to speaking with the Province of BC and our bid partners on identifying major international events that we can bid on together in the near future.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions.

Subject: RE: CBC Online: Vancouver's participation in 2026 World Cup bid thrown into doubt

Final response:

The City of Vancouver welcomes the Federal government's announcement today that they support the United Bid to host FIFA 2026 World Cup matches and training camps in Canada. The City believes that Vancouver's sport hosting history is exceptional, having successfully hosted many international sporting events, most recently the HSBC Rugby World Sevens Series, and the 2015 FIFA Women's World Cup which generated industry output of $82.9M in Vancouver. Inclusion in the United Bid would offer Vancouver a once-in-a lifetime opportunity to be part of the largest sporting event in the world and research has shown that if Vancouver was an official host city we could experience up to $490M in cost benefits. We continue to work with our bid partners, including the province, and look forward to the United Bid Committee's announcement later this week regarding the host cities that they will be including in the bid.

I will send this out to all the media who have contacted us.

Thanks,
Ellie

CBC's coverage.

I still haven't had any messaging from Carolyn but, based on the Minister's comments below, I think our existing statement stands.

Michelle, once you've confirmed the numbers with Sandra I will send the below statement to Global, CTV, Bob Mackin and Vancouver Sun.

Thanks

CBC Online

Quoted: Lisa Beare, B.C. Liberal MLA Jas Johal

The Canadian government announced its support Tuesday for the North American bid for the 2026 World Cup, but it's unknown whether Vancouver will be a part of it.

"It's a great opportunity, as we know. But it also comes with potential risks, so we're looking at those risks and going to make a decision that's in the best interest of B.C. taxpayers," said Lisa Beare, minister of tourism, arts and culture.

The provincial government owns B.C. Place, the only site in Vancouver where potential World Cup games could be played.

The official deadline for the 2026 World Cup bid - jointly submitted by Canada, the United States and Mexico - is March 16, and Vancouver was short-listed as a host city last year, along with Edmonton, Toronto and Montreal.

FIFA will choose between the North American bid and Morocco this June. It's expected Canada would host 10 games, likely at two cities, if the bid was successful.

But B.C. Liberal MLA Jas Johal alleged in question period that an internal deadline to be part of the bid passed on Monday - something which Beare would neither confirm or deny.

"We're still in contact with the bid committee," she said.

"B.C. residents loves soccer, as do we at the province. This is of course something fans would be looking forward to, but we have to take a look at all the opportunities surrounding it and all the risks surrounding it."

A request for comment by Soccer Canada was not immediately returned. [zpz, tacz]

Hi Candidate Host Cities of Canada!

I'm sure you may have heard through media now...or not...but our Province has not come to terms with the collateral agreement for the stadium agreement to be included in the bid book. So we have been told by Canada Soccer and the UBC that we are not being considered as a host city as the bid goes forward. And we respect that effort.

We wish you all the best of luck...who knows if this is the last of us?!? But I'm happy to help in anyway. We are communicating with our partners to make sure that all messaging is on point to see that Canada is successful in the bid. And I sure do hope that when you host we can come and visit and experience a World Cup in Canada!

Cheers,
Michelle

I have not heard from the Province yet this morning and have not heard if there are any changes that they will request of Michael Leaver to consider with their collateral agreement.

Your email below is contradictory, stating that we have a deadline of 12pm today, and a courier coming tomorrow.

Why do we have a deadline of 12pm and no other city has the same timeline?

Michelle, as per the note from the UBC of yesterday afternoon which outlined to the Province of BC that in order to be considered as part of the United 2026 Bid (UBC) to FIFA, BC Place are to provide an unaltered and duly executed original of the Stadium Agreement by today by 12 PST Monday, March 12th. In addition and as per our discussion of yesterday, the UBC are expecting the same from the City of Vancouver, an unaltered and duly executed original(s) of the Host City Agreement.

As the UBC are prepared to have a personal courier authorized by the UBC at your offices tomorrow to retrieve these documents, can you confirm the provision of these documents?

Hi Michelle and Tanya - attached is a fact sheet about the tournament that has been distributed to media. I am also attaching the competition schedule for today.

A few other quick facts:

- Sold out yesterday at 39,000 - breaking our own record for the third year in a row
- If we sell out today - that would move us from last years # of 76,000 over the 2017 weekend, to 78,000 for the 2018 weekend.
- Tickets still available for todays' matches - visit canadasevens.com
- Cup rounds get underway at 1:30 this afternoon - still time to come down and be part of the action.

Let me know if you need more.

Subject: Confidential: United 2026 Announcement tomorrow

Good evening all,

Please keep the following information confidential until 6 AM PST tomorrow.

We have been made aware that Heritage Canada is holding a media conference tomorrow to announce the Federal Government’s support of the United Bid to host the 2026 FIFA World Cup™.

The media conference tomorrow is scheduled for 9 am EST (6 am PST) at BMO Field in Toronto and will feature the Minister of Sport and Persons with a Disabilities, Kirsty Duncan, Peter Montopoli and Councillor Mark Grimes from the City of Toronto. The Government of Canada will be issuing a media release. Canada Soccer will amplify but not issue its own release.

As all four candidate Canadian Host Cities (Vancouver, Edmonton, Toronto and Montreal) are still working towards the ultimate goal of inclusion in the United Bid, no one candidate host city will be mentioned in isolation in any of tomorrow’s messaging, but all will be referenced as a collective. It will also be announced tomorrow that the final list of candidate host cities included in the United bid to FIFA across all three countries will be announced on Thursday March 15th.

- Our draft messaging for your information is outlined below:
- The City of Vancouver welcomes the Federal government’s support of the United Bid to host FIFA 2026 World Cup matches and training camps in Canada.
 - All four Canadian candidate Host Cities are continuing to collaborate and work together to win the bid for Canada, and do not currently see each other as ‘competition’, rather allies to meet the expedited process deadlines.
 - The City is continuing to work with its bid partners and looks forward to Thursday’s announcement by the United Bid Committee of the host cities that they will be including in the bid. We believe that Vancouver’s sport hosting history is exceptional, having successfully hosted many international sporting events, most recently the HSBC Rugby World Sevens Series, and the 2015 FIFA Women’s World Cup which generated industry output of $82.9M in Vancouver.

With the deadline to submit the bid to FIFA fast approaching (March 16) we welcome the federal announcement. As candidate host cities, we are still working to clarify our terms and conditions but see this federal announcement as a positive step in the right direction.

We will not be taking media requests for interviews following tomorrow’s announcement, but instead using the above statements as required. If you receive any direct inquiries – please forward them to Ellie Lambert (City of Vancouver, Communications Manager) – ellie.lambert@vancouver.ca

Please let us know if you have any questions and we look forward to updating you over the next few days.

Thank you for you continued support.

\u8203 ?Hello,

Is someone available for an on camera interview regarding FIFA bid? We have an interview with the Tourism Minister who was questioned about BC possibly not providing support for the bid.
