Subject: Invitation to help shape Canada's priorities for the G7 Summit - Oct. 23-24

Happy Monday!

I thought you might find the following roundtable interesting. The lead 'Sherpa' for the G7 meeting that Canada is hosting next year will be coming by the SFU Centre for Dialogue to meet with some of our key contacts to discuss priorities for the G7 meeting. It's a rare opportunity to provide input before the Canadian objectives are set.

We want to ensure there are a group of smart people in the room who can address the social and environmental issues (including women's empowerment, labour, inclusive economic growth, energy, youth engagement etc). I will be facilitating the Monday afternoon session but there is a second opportunity on Tuesday morning if you can't make the Monday session.

I hope you will register and forward this to people who you think might be interested in attending.

Warm wishes,
Shauna
