Dear s.22(1)

RE: Request for Access to Records under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act")

I am responding to your request of August 29, 2018 under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act for:

All records regarding the licensing of tattoo shops in Vancouver between 1970 and 1975, specifically about the business licenses applied for by Brian Zuk during the Spring in 1974.

We have completed the search for responsive records for this request and no responsive records have been located. The Deputy Chief License Inspector has confirmed that the Licence Office does not have business license records going back to the years specified in your request.

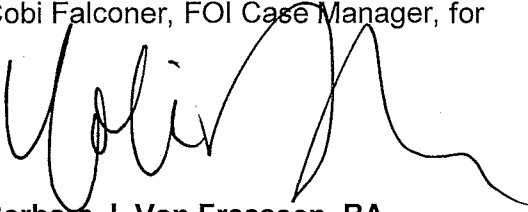

The City of Vancouver Archives informed us that there may be information about licensing tattoo parlours in general through policy discussions or decisions in the Council minutes from that period, or in the operational files. However, Archives does not have business license application information for a specific business from that time period. If you would like to research information at the Archives, you can contact them at 604-736-8561, or by email at archives@vancouver.ca. Please see the following link for more information: <https://vancouver.ca/your-government/city-of-vancouver-archives.aspx>

Under section 52 of the Act, and within 30 business days of receipt of this letter, you may ask the Information & Privacy Commissioner to review any matter related to the City's response to your FOI request by writing to: Office of the Information & Privacy Commissioner, info@oipc.bc.ca or by phoning 250-387-5629.

If you request a review, please provide the Commissioner's office with: 1) the request number (#04-1000-20-2018-463); 2) a copy of this letter; 3) a copy of your original request; and 4) detailed reasons why you are seeking the review.

Yours truly,

Cobi Falconer, FOI Case Manager, for
