Dear Mayor and Council,

This weekend, the City, along with the Province, PHS Community Services Society, and Hogan's Alley Society will be celebrating the official opening of Nora Hendrix Place - the latest temporary modular housing building.

With the completion of this building, more than 50 people who had experienced homelessness will now have safe, warm homes. Located in the Hogan's Alley block and named after a prominent member of the Black community, Nora Hendrix Place prioritizes people who are Black and Indigenous.

This new housing also marks the final building in the initial funding from the Province which brought 606 temporary modular homes to Vancouver.

Please join us to mark this important milestone and see the attached invite for details.

DATE: Sunday, March 3, 2019

TIME: 1:00 PM

LOCATION: Nora Hendrix Place, 258 Union Street, Vancouver
