I would like to invite you to the City of Vancouver's annual Family Fun Fair, which takes place rain or shine on:

Saturday, May 11, 2019
10am – 3pm
Manitoba Works Yard
250 West 70th Avenue

Children and families in Vancouver are invited for free fair rides and games, as well as a chance to learn about the people and equipment that make the city work.

Family entertainment will include games, pony rides, a hay ride, and face painting, plus a performance from popular children's musicians Bobs & LoLo at 12pm. We will also highlight the City's work through booths, equipment shows, and displays from many city departments, including Engineering Services, the Vancouver Park Board, the Vancouver Police Department, Vancouver Fire and Rescue and Vancouver Public Library.

As part of the City's Women Deliver activations, the fair will also showcase women in underrepresented job areas and professions. Recruiting booths, a scavenger hunt, and displays will highlight how women can work at the city. Women staff will also be present to showcase their work and be active role models for children attending the fair.

Please do stop by if you can. Staff work hard on this event and would greatly appreciate your attendance. If you would like to volunteer as well, please do email the team at familyday@vancouver.ca.

If you will attend or volunteer, I encourage you to take transit to reach the fair – Manitoba Yard is a short walk from the Marine Gateway train station. Attendees are also encouraged to bring a water bottle, sunscreen, and cash or card for food purchases.

For more information, please visit vancouver.ca/familyday, and the City's social media accounts on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.
