Subject: Smart City Challenge to be Announced Today

Greetings Mayor and Council

Today Infrastructure Canada will announce the winners of the Smart Cities Challenge between 1pm and 145pm PST from Ottawa. The proceedings will be livestreamed on facebook.com/InfrastructureCanadaENG/. The City of Vancouver and City of Surrey are finalists for their joint submission to build Canada's first two collision-free corridors using autonomous vehicles.

Vancouver's delegation to Ottawa includes Deputy City Manager Paul Mochrie and Chief Technology Officer Jessie Adcock. We will let you know if we win or lose when it's announced.
