Greetings Mayor and Council,

On May 30, residents may find themselves boogying to a catchy, new tune – all in the spirit of traffic safety for all modes of transportation. Commissioned by the City, Grandma on the Move, features award-winning children's entertainers, Will Stroet and the enduring Charlotte Diamond with an aim to inspire safe, courteous, and mindful road behaviour, particularly for our most vulnerable and at-risk groups.

The song is also accompanied by an activity colouring book for kids aged 5-12 to help reinforce the safety lessons. It will be distributed to various Vancouver School Board elementary schools as a resource for those involved in traffic safety programs and available for download online. For more information, to download the activity colouring book, and to stream the video, visit vancouver.ca/grandmaonthemove. The news release will be distributed shortly.

Best,
Sadhu
