Good Evening Council

As per your request, here are a couple of stats of rental in the c-2 zones:

- A total of 377 purpose-built rental buildings (3,052 units) currently exist in C-2 zones across Vancouver
- Over the last 10 years from 2009-2018, residential redevelopment approvals has resulted in the City gaining a total of 1,204 new purpose-built rental units, but losing 191 existing purpose-built rental units in C-2 zones. The gain and loss in rental is equivalent to a net positive change of 1,013 units.

Best
