My apologies Council – I inadvertently reversed north/south in my last message. Access to City Hall is still possible through the north entrance.

Mayor and Council,

As an update to my message sent yesterday evening, a group of approximately 15 protestors has gathered at the north main entrance to City Hall and is impeding access to the building via those doors.

VPD is on site and City Protective Services staff are managing access through the south doors.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.
