Subject: Draft 2020 Budget

Dear Mayor and Council,

City clerks will be delivering an early version of the Draft 2020 budget today, in order to give you time to review before the report is public on Nov. 22nd. Please note that some changes may be made prior to the public release of the budget, as we review and finalize content, including a budget highlights handout that provides a brief summary of the budget.

On Monday, during the scheduled Budget briefing for Council, we will walk through the document contents and discuss the process for Councillors to request changes and submit questions to staff.

This is a comprehensive document that, as we have discussed, reflects a new approach based on Council's feedback. We look forward to the discussion next week. If you have questions about the content of the budget, please feel free to email me or Patrice your questions.

Best,
Sadhu
