MKS One Year Video VO Script

Housing.

Overdoses.

SkyTrain to UBC.

That's what you told me to work on a year ago, and that's what I'm doing – every day.

A quarter billion dollars to build 1,100 low- and middle-income homes

$33 million dollars to build 2,300 new childcare spaces

New partnerships to bring in Safe Supply to break the cycle of opioid overdoses.

And an accelerated timeline to deliver SkyTrain to UBC.

There's much more to do – that's why I'm working with City Council, Victoria, and Ottawa to secure the partnerships we need.

Because I know that if we work together we can build a Vancouver that works for everyone.
