Good afternoon Mayor and Council,

As you may be aware, protestors are currently impeding all access points to the Port of Vancouver's operations on the south shore of Burrard Inlet. VPD is monitoring the protests to maintain safety and public order. There has been some tension today between protestors and truckers seeking to access the Port.

At this point, we are not aware that the Port or any others parties have filed applications for injunctive relief from the protests.

VPD is also aware of a protest planned tomorrow for City Hall and will have resources on site for that event.

Please let me or Sadhu know if you have any questions or concerns.

Best,
Paul
