Subject: INVITATION - Four Host First Nations Community Gathering - 2010 10 Year Anniversary - Feb 15

Dear Mayor and Council,

In addition to all of the public events that the City of Vancouver will be supporting during the 2010 Anniversary, there is also an intimate gathering of the Four Host First Nations that will be taking place at Chief Joe Mathias Centre on the Squamish Reserve this Saturday.

The City of Vancouver has supported this event with some funds to help with the family activities and light food and beverage that they will be providing. They will be sharing stories and watching footage of the 2010 Games that highlight the historic moment of Indigenous people officially working in collaboration with the local Olympic and Paralympic Games organizing committee.

Tewanee Joseph would like to extend an invitation to the Mayor and Councillors should they wish to take part in their community gathering. There is no official speaking part, but rather they will have an open mic for people to share their favourite moments of the Games. The gymnasium will be open from 1:30pm-5:00pm for community members of each Four Nations that were actively involved in the Games to come together during the 2010 Anniversary. It will be an open house, so there is no specific time to arrive or leave.
