Dear s.22(1)

Re: Request for Access to Records under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (the "Act")

I am responding to your request of July 21, 2021 for:

Regarding a meeting on June 1, 2021 involving Mayor Kennedy Stewart, and others, about "2030 Olympics," I seek the correspondence about the scheduling of the meeting, the agenda, minutes, briefing notes, audio recording, video recording, transcript, and PowerPoint or similar presentations.

All responsive records are attached. Some information in the records has been severed, (blacked out), under s.15(1)(l), s.16(1) and s.17(1) of the Act. You can read or download this section here: http://www.bclaws.ca/EPLibraries/bclaws_new/document/ID/freeside/96165_00

Under section 52 of the Act, and within 30 business days of receipt of this letter, you may ask the Information & Privacy Commissioner to review any matter related to the City's response to your FOI request by writing to: Office of the Information & Privacy Commissioner, info@oipc.bc.ca or by phoning 250-387-5629.

If you request a review, please provide the Commissioner's office with: 1) the request number (#04-1000-20-2021-386); 2) a copy of this letter; 3) a copy of your original request; and 4) detailed reasons why you are seeking the review.

Yours truly,

Cobi Falconer, FOI Case Manager, for

COC & CPC GAMES BID VISION

- Unite Canadians through a shared Olympic Games experience
- Inspire Canadians to achieve excellence and build healthy communities
- Leverage and enhance existing legacies while creating NEW Olympic legacies in British Columbia
- Communities throughout British Columbia achieve their long-term visions through the hosting of Games

IOC REFORMS – AGENDA 2020

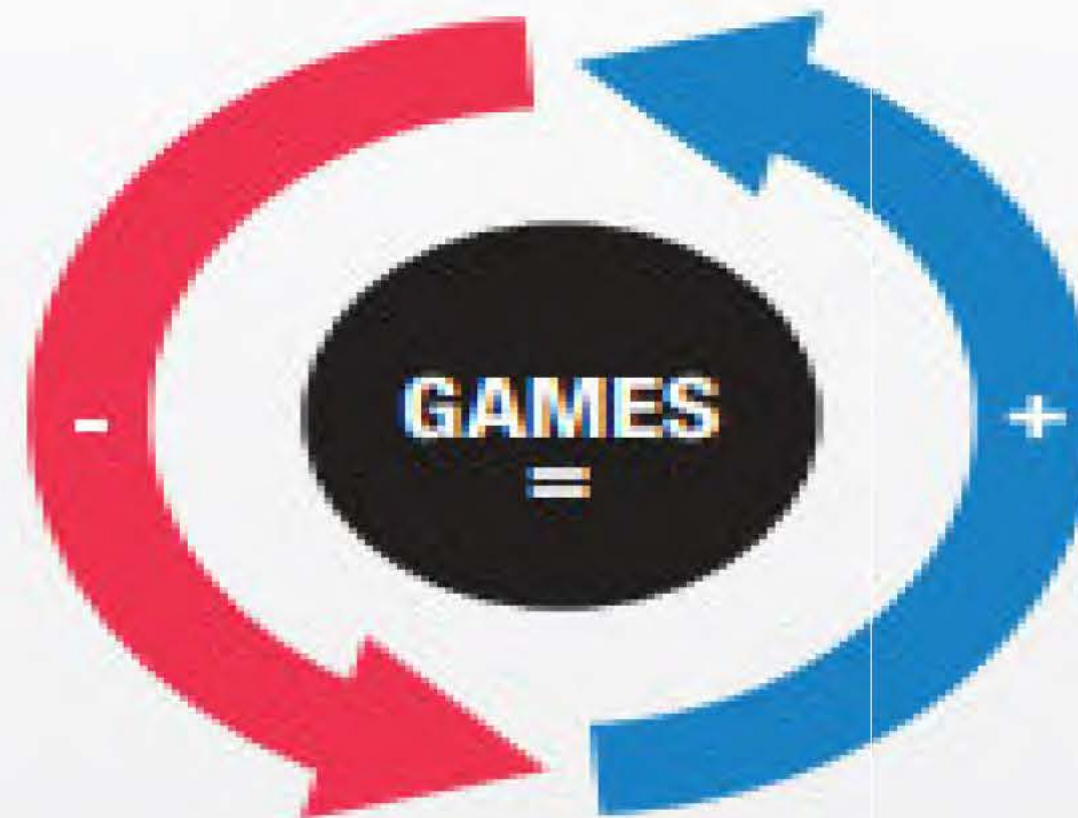

- IOC reduced candidate expenses over 80% from US$35M to US$5M during the 2026 bid process – template for future bids
- IOC emphasizes plans that fit a candidate's long-term sporting, economic, social and environmental needs
- Regional bids are now accepted and encouraged
- All Games from 2030 and beyond are required to be Climate Positive
- Flexible timelines allow for ongoing discussions rather than hard bid deadlines

IOC BIDDING PHASES

- The IOC has reduced the bidding process to two broad phases. As the bid leader, the COC has supplemented with domestic milestones to ensure local support is aligned:
 1. Continuous Dialogue Phase - Exploratory in nature and non-committal. IOC holds discussions with interested parties with the support of their respective National Olympic Committee (i.e. COC). These discussions are non-edition specific
 2. Targeted Dialogue Phase - Defined process to explore a proposal to host a specific edition of the Games. International Olympic Committee invites one or more candidates to enter into detailed discussions to refine their project(s)

CURRENT STATUS

- COC & CPC are focused on preparing for the Tokyo 2020 and Beijing 2022 Games - No formal discussions have been held yet
- In 2021, COC & CPC will engage local communities strictly on technical feasibility assessments prior to Concept Review phase
- Spring 2022, COC & CPC will approach interested parties in British Columbia (e.g. Cities, First Nations, Province) in partnership to discuss collective vision for Games and begin Concept Review phase
- COC & CPC will fund initial investment for feasibility assessments and related work during the Concept Review phase

OPPORTUNITIES FOR MUNICIPALITIES AND FIRST NATIONS TO LEVERAGE THE GAMES

- Housing
- Economic Development & Tourism
- Environment and Sustainability
- Venue Development for Community Legacies
- Social Development and Sporting / Physically Active Lifestyles

- THOMAS HALL – Director, Communications & Media Relations – thall@olympic.ca
- MATTHEW BONGIORNO – Manager, Government Relations & Public Affairs – mbongiorno@olympic.ca

On March 31, 2021

- City Staff presented a Report Back presentation on Council Motion: “Beyond 2010: Consideration for the City of Vancouver to Participate in a Future Olympic Winter Games Bid”

Council approved amended motion:

- THAT in the event of any future consideration for a 2030 bid, Council direct staff to prepare a critical cost-benefit analysis of the 2010 Olympics and specifically any evidence or assumed impacts on housing, affordability, environment and climate.
- FURTHER THAT this critical analysis be extrapolated to inform any future regional Olympic bid consideration and report.

CITY OF VANCOUVER'S ROLE

- The City of Vancouver will not lead the bid discussion.
- City Staff will participate in regional discussions with key stakeholders to further explore potential regional bid plan.
- As more information becomes available, staff will keep Mayor and Council informed on the timelines and progress of a regional bid plan.
- Once a regional bid concept is developed, staff will report back with recommendations regarding the City of Vancouver's participation in a future bid.
- The bid concept phase will not require funding from the City of Vancouver.

- City of Vancouver to align objectives and vision with all Vancouver partners to have a collaborative voice at the regional table
- City of Vancouver will continue to facilitate open communication and assure that all information on bid exploration and bid concept development is accurate – direct contact with Canadian Olympic Committee and all critical Vancouver stakeholders.

Assuming for today's presentation I'll just share my screen?
Can you make sure I have the ability to do that with the link, I'm not sure who is managing that.

Attached is the presentation if we do not have that access.
