Good afternoon Mayor and Council,

Further to my message on Chinatown Festival, we are aware of additional inquiries that are coming from other special event organizers who have expressed concerns about event permitting timelines and processes. There are several factors contributing to this situation, including the evolving PHO context. We are working through each of these concerns with the event organizers to achieve resolution.

In the meantime, I wanted to reiterate our recognition of the importance of supporting special events at this time and confirm that we are working to find solutions quickly and with as much flexibility as possible.

Best,
Paul
