Subject: Council meetings - options for participation

---

Good morning Mayor and Council,

I am writing in response to a question this morning as to whether the option of virtual participation in Council proceedings is still available, particularly given the current prevalence and transmission of respiratory illnesses.

To confirm, the Procedure By-law provides that members of Council who are not able to attend a regular Council meeting, standing committee meeting or a special Council meeting, including in camera meetings, may participate by electronic means (ie. Webex).

If you have any other questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to connect with me or Rosemary.

Thanks,
Paul
