Hello team,

FYI – see below for a press release from the International Olympic Committee advising that the IOC session scheduled for May 2023 (where it was expected that the 2030 Winter Games host would be announced) has been postponed until September or October 2023.

We expect this to affect timelines around bid submission, as well as the dependencies for that (ie. MPA negotiation, targeted dialogue between COC and IOC, guarantees, etc.). Will provide more information as we hear more.

Cheers,
Kevin

Hi All,

For information and future discussion - The IOC Session scheduled for Mumbai has been postponed until September or October of 2023, so we expect the future host election will also be delayed. As noted by the IOC below, further information on planning impacts to Targeted Dialogue timelines is to come.

Thanks,

Andrew
