Subject: Book Presentation and Naval Reserve Day Proclamation - May 31, 2023 @ 9 am

Dear Mayor and Council,

In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Royal Canadian Naval Reserve, the Naval Association of British Columbia invites you to a special presentation of HMCS Discovery Roll of Honour 1939-1945, a book that captures the life stories of the 78 sailors who enrolled in Vancouver into the RCNVR and died as a result of their service in World War II.

The brief presentation of this book will take place in the Council Chamber on Wednesday, May 31 at 9:00 am, and will be followed by Mayor Sim's reading of a Proclamation to declare Naval Reserve Day in the City of Vancouver. The event will conclude by 9:20 am.

The itinerary for the event is as follows:

- 9:00 ☒ King Wan, President, Naval Association of BC to give welcoming remarks and a brief introduction on the significance of the book, HMCS Discovery Roll of Honour 1939-1945
- 9:05 ☒ Book is presented to Mayor Ken Sim
- 9:10 ☒ Mayor Sim gives brief remarks and reads Proclamation declaring Naval Reserve Day in the City of Vancouver
- 9:15 ☒ Photo Opportunity
- 9:20 ☒ Event concludes

I hope you can all attend.

Best,
Paul
