Subject: Invitation to Commemorative pole raising

Dear Mayor and Council,

In response to Councillor Carr's question below, staff have confirmed that an official invite to Council for the Residential School commemorative pole raising event was not received. This event is being organized by YWCA Metro Vancouver's Truth and Reconciliation Committee and is open to the public.

Event details are as follows:

- The Memorial Monument for Children of Residential Schools, crafted by Kwakiutl Master Carver Stanley C Hunt, will be unveiled at the Jack Poole Plaza, Vancouver Convention Centre, on June 21st from 2 pm, with the main ceremony at 4 pm.
- The monument, making a journey from Port Hardy, BC to Vancouver, BC from June 16th to 21st, arrives via a Coast Guard hovercraft and honors the spirits of children who didn't return from residential schools and all affected families; attendees are encouraged to show support by wearing orange.

Best,
Paul

Hi Paul – Could you please check to see if Mayor and Council were invited to an event today (National Indigenous Peoples Day) at Canada Place – a Residential School commemorative pole raising? If so, but we didn't get it forwarded to us, could you please ensure that happens ASAP.

Thanks so much,
Adriane
