Subject: Call for Ideas: October 2023 AI Hackathon

Dear Mayor and Council,

I'm pleased to convey that this fall, our Chief Technology Office will be hosting the two-day adVANce AI Hackathon in collaboration with Microsoft.

We will use this forum to develop a set of AI-driven solutions for some of the issues and/or opportunities facing the City of Vancouver

We are currently in the midst of soliciting ideas for what should be worked on at this hackathon, and, to this end, we invite you to submit any ideas you might want to propose via this form, by Friday, August 18th.

Thanks,

Karen
