Applications for City of Vancouver's Core Support Grants now open

As part of the City of Vancouver's ongoing commitment to support community and social development, applications are now open for the annual Core Support Grants program. This grant program is aimed at enhancing social services, reducing vulnerability and bolstering equity and inclusion for Vancouver residents.

The Core Support Grants program is a cornerstone of the City of Vancouver's commitment to creating a more equitable and inclusive Vancouver. These grants are designed to provide essential funding to support the delivery of vital social services directly to nonprofits, charities, Indigenous organizations, and other organizations working to strengthen their capacity to address pressing social issues and navigate change effectively.

Read the Core Support Grants information guide to find out more information about the program, eligibility criteria and the application process. Applications are available on VanApply, the City's online grants management system
